

Who / Which / Whom

Who is your best friend?
Who is your favourite actress?
Who is in front of the door?
Who can help us?
Who is the best student in our class?

Which rose smells the best red or blue one?
Which of those two boys is your brother?
Which is the best place for sitting?
Which is your favourite movie?
Which house is yours?
Which is your favourite season?

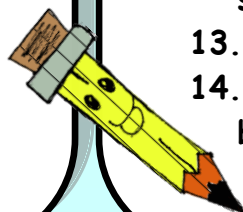

Whom is that girl chasing?
Whom did we fight?
Whom did you take a coat?
Whom have you offered a place to stay?
Whom did you offer coffee?

Exercise 1:

Put who/which in empty spaces:

- _____ is your favourite movie?
- _____ went to dinner?
- _____ dress suits me best?
- _____ is your favourite actor?
- _____ book did you bring?
- _____ is your favourite teacher?
- _____ of those two girls is your sister?
- _____ is the tallest boy in our class?
- _____ car does your father drive?
- _____ is your boss?
- _____ of those two coffees is yours?
- _____ is your favourite subject?
- _____ is coming today to pick you?
- _____ is your best friend?
- _____ helps you with your homework most?
- _____ is there?

Exercise 2:

Put who/whom in empty spaces:

- _____ is good at maths in your family?
- _____ did you talk to?
- _____ did you give a present to?
- _____ is in front of the door?
- _____ do you love the most?
- _____ did you borrow the money from?
- _____ is your favourite singer?
- _____ is in charge of school lunches here?
- _____ is your brother?
- _____ do you admire most?
- _____ are the funniest children in your class?
- _____ were the first settlers in the USA?
- _____ is going with whom?
- _____ was the letter written by?