

SOME / ANY

Exercises

School

phillipmartin.info

Fill in with some or any: (Sometimes both are possible, depending on how you perceive the situation.)

1. There are _____ apples in the fridge.
2. Are there _____ bananas on the table?
3. There aren't _____ oranges left!
4. Would you like _____ coffee?
5. Do you have _____ problems with your new teacher?
6. I have _____ very interesting books, come around so we can read together!
7. Tony was having _____ problems with his car, so he couldn't drive his child to school.
8. She didn't have _____ toys left to play with, so I borrowed her _____.
9. Can I have _____ salt in my salad, please?
10. They couldn't buy _____ roses for the teacher. It was too expensive!
11. My parents are usually busy, so they don't have _____ time left for me!
12. What an interesting story! Do you have _____ more?
13. I have _____ problems with this computer, what about you?
14. Do you have _____ extra pencils?
15. Would you like _____ juice to drink?
16. There are _____ great hot-dogs over there!
17. I would like to buy _____ training shoes, but I don't know what to choose.
18. I think that I can see _____ guys over there coming towards us!
19. She is making _____ nice cakes!
20. Are there _____ dishes I can use?
21. May I take _____ handouts for my friends who are not coming to class today?
22. Are there _____ pupils outside?
23. There are _____ meals you can try for free!

Any

*in 'real' questions and negatives:

I don't have any friends.

Do you have any friends?

Is there any bank near here?

She can't do any homework herself.

Drill: Exercise 2 (-questions where you offer something or where you expect the answer 'yes' - it can be done orally since it's a kind of a drill) in each sentence use some:

1. Would you like _____ tea?
2. Could you pass me _____ salt, please?
3. Would you like _____ biscuits?
4. May I take _____ biscuits?
5. Am I allowed to use _____ materials for free?
6. Could you tell me if there are _____ banks nearby?
7. Can I take _____ pencils?
8. Would you like to eat _____ bananas?
9. Are there _____ students who are not present?

Some

- in positive sentences and 'polite' (not real) questions- 'Would you like some coffee?'